Henry Meyer Gets 3-Year Contract

It was a close call, but Henry Meyer emerged from the Antioch Grade School board meeting on Tuesday of last week with a new three-year contract.

It was the culmination of three weeks of rumors that some of the board members hoped to have the superintendent of the grade school district fired.

A motion was made by board member Ray Atwood, and seconded by Milo Bailey, to issue the three-year contract.

Atwood, Bailey and board president Gerry Vander Meer voted in favor, while Bob Kelley, Gail Heath and LaVerne Woods voted against it.

The seventh member, James Miles, abstained.

The grade school district's attorney, Ted Larson, said that an abstention counts as an affirmative vote and therefore Meyer's contract should be renewed.

Later the board also voted, 4-3, to give Mr. Meyer a seven percent increase in salary for the 1975-76 school year.

The board unanimously approved new contracts for Samuel Kohr, business manager; Harlan Ware, principal of the Lower Grade School; Paul Hain, principal at Channel Lake; Walter Soderman, Oakland's principal; William Herbst, principal at the Upper Grade School; David Booth, pupil service coordinator, and Michael Teeley, director of environmental education.

Each received a 10 percent increase in salary for the 1975-76 school year, except Soderman, who received a 15 percent raise.

Somewhere between 50 and 75 persons attended the board meeting and several, including teachers and secretaries, spoke out in favor of Meyer.

One of Meyer's supporters, Curtis Denny, said he was "especially proud of the obvious quality of learning and teaching that I see in the schools."

Denny praised what he called the district's "concentration on the individual learner."

"In some ways, our educational program is similar to a forest of trees in various stages of development. Some are mature. Some are mere sprouts. To survive, some need no attention, some need fertilization, some need pruning, some need removal. The challenge is to prescribe the appropriate care for each tree, keeping in mind that inappropriate care can destroy the life process faster than no care at all," he added.

Vehicle Stickers On Sale

Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz announced at Monday night's board meeting that vehicle stickers are now on sale at the village hall.

All residents owning automobiles and trucks must purchase the 1976 stickers, which cost $6. The price is only $1 for senior citizens.

The stickers are due on windshields by Jan. 1, and if they are not purchased by Feb. 15 owners of vehicles will have to pay a $2 penalty.

Vehicles without stickers are liable to be ticketed by Antioch police.

'Doc' Jensen Gives $15,000 For Park Use

The village of Antioch has a check for $15,000 which will be used to enhance the facilities at "Doc" Jensen Park.

The money was given by the man after whom the park was named, Dr. George W. Jensen, 85 years old and a long-time Antioch veterinarian and civic leader.

The park in Sequoit Terrace Subdivision was dedicated last April and was enjoyed during the summer by children using the playground equipment and by youngsters and adults who flocked to the three tennis courts.

The new Antioch park commission probably will recommend to the village trustees how the $15,000 should be spent. The announcement was made by Mayor Robert C. Wilton at Monday night's village board meeting.

DR. GEORGE W. JENSEN

IN OTHER action, the trustees voted 3-2 to authorize an ordinance pertaining to the construction of driveways. Village residents will have to post a $100 cash bond, which will be completely refundable once the driveway is completed, inspected and approved by the village.

The issue apparently came up because of a driveway built in Oakwood Knolls which is above the street level and could cause problems and damage to village snowplows.

Trustees William Seemann,

Diane (Willie) Kasik and Mike Haley voted for the ordinance, while J. Irving Walsh and Arnold Weber voted against it.

Walsh called it "another ordinance that won't be enforced," and Weber said he thought $100 was too much, especially for senior citizens.

THE TRUSTEES decided to postpone next Monday's committee meetings until January and scheduled a "committee of the whole" meeting for 7 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 5.

The regular board meeting will start at 8 o'clock that night.

The "committee of the whole" meeting was set to discuss the comprehensive village plan recommended by the planning commission on Dec. 4.

Ken Wierschem, chairman of the planning group, said it is now the trustees' responsibility

Teacher Seminar In Lake Villa

Robert Holway, executive director of the Allendale School in Lake Villa, has announced that Allendale (a private school for boys) in conjunction with the Lake Villa Community Consolidated School District will sponsor a "Teacher Effectiveness Training Seminar."

The program will be for five consecutive Mondays (Jan. 12, 19, 26 and Feb. 2, 9) from 1 to 4 p.m.

Myra Ducharme, a staff member of the South Lake County Family Service Bureau, will be the instructor.

The thrust of the program will be to develop communication skills that help build relationships between teachers and students rather than destroy them.

The total cost of the co-operative venture is to be underwritten by the Allendale School for Boys.

Details on the seminar will be made available through the schools. Teachers attending will be from Lake Villa Intermediate School, Pleviak, Prince of Peace, Allendale and SEDOL (Special Education District of Lake County).

The teacher asked a six-year-old boy what he did to care for his teeth. "I watch out for kids who shove at the drinking fountain," he replied.

In a letter to the board, Wierschem said his group is preparing a publicity campaign to make the public aware of the details of the long-sought comprehensive plan for the village.

IT WAS learned at the meeting that Donald Peterson of Barnstables Department Store has a contract to buy the buildings housing Mary Ellen's Little Gallery and the Antioch Carpet store, both just north of Barnstables.

Mr. Peterson is buying the buildings from Herman Rosing and Hilma Lightsey and the closing is scheduled Jan. 15, but first the village must straighten out some difficulty with the VILLAGE ATTORNEY Andrew C. Lynch said that an ordinance has been prepared allowing the village to annex portions of North Ave. which now are under the township's jurisdiction. The land is on the north side of the avenue, west of Hy. 83, and will permit the village to maintain the area, plow the snow, and so forth.

In other business, the village hired Marty Berry to coach the Antioch swim team again next summer and Winnie Sorenson as a swim instructor at the Aqua Center. Each will be paid $800.

Trustee Mike Haley said the village has applied for a federal grant to refurbish and replace traffic control signs.

"We're requesting $9,000 and the village share will be $900," Haley said.

What's With Bacon?

Is the USDA going to ban bacon? NO!

Is the USDA going to ban the use of sodium nitrite? NO!

If not, then what is going on? Why all the confusion? What happened? What is going to happen?

It all started with a UPI newswire story on Sunday, Oct. 19 which quoted Dr. Donald Houston, Assistant Deputy Administrator of USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service as saying, "We will probably require certain actions by the industry within a specified period to remove nitrosamines from bacon or take some action so that the product as we now know it will not be available."

Almost daily since then USDA officials have been adding to the confusion with inconsistent comments, press releases, misstatements, and denials.

The catastrophic results can only be corrected by a thorough and clear understanding of the facts. The following material offers a complete update on nitrites, nitrates, nitrosamines and their relationship to cured meats.

The cancer scare . . . is just that, a scare. For a human being to run any risk from eating bacon he would have to:

- * consume 46,000 pounds per day, every day of his life

- * eat as much bacon every day as 100 average people eat in a lifetime

- * eat as much bacon as 2.4 million people eat currently each day

Remember:

- * Without government regulations, industry has reduced the general level of residual nitrites by 70% over the last two years.

- * Further recommendations to reduce residual nitrites have been made by the American Meat Institute, after $325,000 and five years' worth of research.

- * Industry-wide adoption of American Meat Institute recommendations should result in levels too low to measure.

- * We still must prevent botulism, a real public health hazard.

Background — The American Meat Institute has worked closely with the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) ever since any hint of a problem presented itself. Because nitrosamines were found in fish meal treated with nitrite, an investigation of meats cured with nitrites and nitrates was initiated about 5 years ago. Since that time, hundreds of thousands of dollars have been expended to determine the facts.

The Need for Nitrite — Results to date indicate that safe quantities of nitrite are definitely needed in a number of products, including bacon.

Nitrite has an essential role in not only fixing color and providing a distinct cured flavor but in preventing botulism outbreaks.

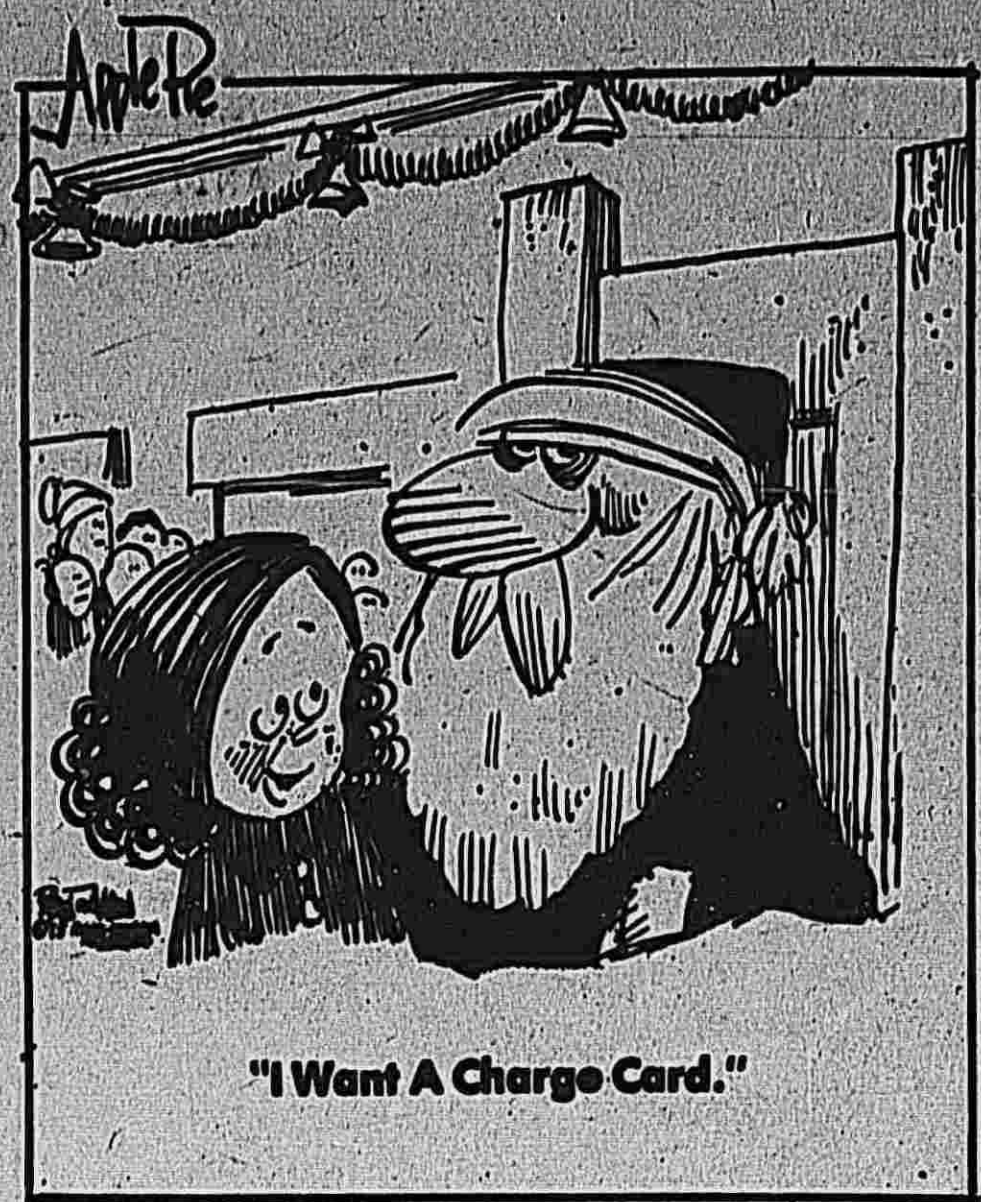

The Problem — The use of nitrite in curing bacon results in the formation of very tiny quantities of nitrosopyrrolidine after cooking. Increasing erythorbate or ascorbate levels and decreasing nitrite in bacon reduces the amount of the nitrosamine which forms. Current commercial average levels are about 10 parts per billion (ppb). A recent study has shown that the nitrosopyrrolidine in cooked bacon can be reduced from 7 ppb to non-detectable levels by reducing ingoing nitrite to 120 parts per million (ppm) and increasing ingoing erythorbate or ascorbate to 1000 ppm. These safe levels prevent botulism.

Additional Research — Although levels are already extremely low, research is continuing at a rapid pace to determine a safe process which will consistently produce non-detectable levels of nitrosopyrrolidine. German rat feeding studies of nitrosopyrrolidine are also continuing. Results after 600 days (nearly a normal life span for rats) indicate liver tumors in rats fed 3.0 mg. per kg. of body weight per day and no liver tumors to date in rats fed 1.0 mg. or 0.3 mg. per kg. of body weight per day. The following table shows the comparable amounts of bacon containing 10 ppb of nitrosopyrrolidine that an average 154 pound person would have to eat to obtain the same effect as induced in rats.

Amounts Per Day for Lifetime:

Rat Feeding Levels	Human Equivalent
3.0 mg. per kg.	46,245 lbs.
1.0 mg. per kg.*	15,400 lbs.
0.3 mg. per kg.*	4,625 lbs.

BARRY GOLDWATER

First, Food Stamps; Now, Travel Stamps

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Believe it or not, government officials are experimenting with a new welfare-stamp program.

This time the idea is to provide needy recipients with travel stamps in a program patterned after the food-stamp plan.

The testing is taking place in West Virginia. Each month welfare recipients in that state who are over 60 and have physical or mental handicaps can buy inexpensive tickets for travel. They pay from $1 to $5, depending on the amount of their income, and receive $8 worth of stamps to use on local buses, highway buses or taxis. Eventually the program is expected to be extended to Amtrak rail service.

Although government officials don't like the new program in comparison with the food-stamp plan, observers noted these similarities:

- 1 - Both are designed to help the poor pay for the necessities of life.

- 2 - Both had their inception in West Virginia.

- 3 - Some of the same people who helped start the food-stamp plan 15 years ago are now working on the travel program.

WEST VIRGINIA administrators call the new stamp plan 'Transportation Remuneration Incentive Program, or TRIP.'

At present some 125,000 West Virginians are eligible to participate in the travel-stamp plan, but only 6,000 are taking advantage of it.

The plan is being financed with federal, state and local funds. Total cost of the development state, which will run through fiscal 1977, is estimated at $21.8 million.

Christmas Program Tonight at Oakland

The Oakland Grade School PTO will present a Christmas program tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30.

There will be a selection of songs by the kindergarten, second grade and fifth grade choruses. Refreshments will be served following the program. The public is invited to attend.

Legion Auxiliary Helps Vets 'Shop'

The joy of Christmas giving will be the gift of the American Legion Auxiliary to the many veterans in hospitals in Illinois, who have little or no income with which to remember their loved ones at home during the holiday season.

The auxiliary will operate a Christmas Gift Shop in 16 hospitals throughout the state. Gift items are displayed just as in a commercial gift shop. The difference is: no price tags and no cash registers.

Volunteers wrap and mail the gifts to the veteran's home at no cost. With each gift is enclosed a card showing the gift comes from the hospitalized veteran.

Antioch Unit No. 748 has helped to make the project possible through its contribution to the fund which provides the gifts.

Transportation, Meals For Senior Citizens

To assist senior citizens in their home environment and avoid the need for institutionalization are the goals of The Chaplaincy Service's Chain of Lakes Senior Services Project.

The project's Antioch office has been developing since July. This office is located in the Antioch Methodist Church and there are two phone numbers to obtain service, 395-5161 and 395-5162.

Seven services for seniors are available: transportation, meals on wheels, information and referral, outreach, counseling, telephone reassurance (telecare) and friendly visits.

Transportation is available for senior citizens who have none. The project will pick them up at their home and drive them to doctor appointments, shopping and other needed services.

Special shopping tours will also be scheduled. There is a small fee for the service, 25c a ride in the immediate Antioch area. However those who cannot afford to pay still receive the service.

The project's first concern is that senior citizens who need services, receive them, whether they can pay for them is secondary.

MEALS ON wheels are hot lunches delivered to seniors Monday through Friday at their homes.

To insure the best possible diet the project consults with the person's physician. Cost is $1.60 per meal but those who cannot afford this price can pay what is within their means. The goal is to insure proper nutrition for seniors.

Information and referral services are available at the Round Lake office, 546-0020. For example, if a senior needs legal assistance, the project will provide names and places where the service is available.

OUTREACH SERVICES are designed to locate isolated senior citizens who are in need of assistance and not receiving them. The project hopes that concerned relatives and friends will help in locating these seniors. The project will contact and assist them if the need exists.

Counseling services are necessary to deal with emotional struggles. Feelings of loneliness, abandonment and loss call for a good listener. The Chaplaincy Service is in a special position to help.

With telephone reassurance (telecare), senior citizens can call the project or the project will call them at a designated time every day to see if they are okay. If the project does not hear from a caller it will take the appropriate steps to see that the caller has not had an accident or become seriously ill during the night.

IF A SENIOR needs compan-

ionship or help around the house, the project hopes to develop a volunteer corps to meet these needs.

And the project has needs too. It needs volunteers to drive for meals on wheels, make friendly visits and answer the office phones.

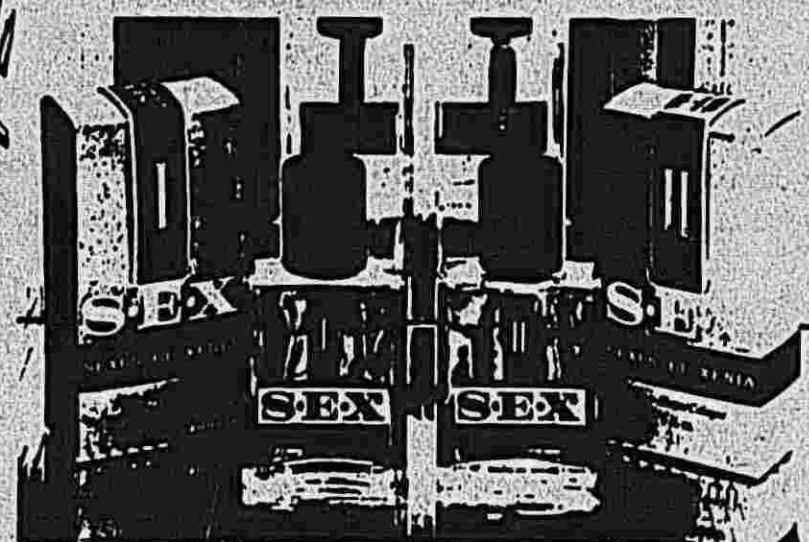

Donations are also needed. The project will assist seniors regardless of cost but it does need financial support to maintain the program.

-Donations can be sent to Chain of Lakes Senior Services at 848 Main St. Antioch, Ill. 60002.

Old Farmer's Riddle: Two men fell out of a boat, but only one got his hair wet. Why? (Answer below.)

Ask the Old Farmer: I recently found a recipe for sweet and sour pork that called for "six pieces of red haw," which I had to omit since I have no idea what it is. Do you know what "red haw" is? R.Y., Sarasota, Florida.

The hawberry is the fruit of the hawthorn tree.

Home Hints: Molasses and honey are apt to stick to the measuring cup. To avoid this, butter the measuring cup, before you pour ... Riddle answer: One was bald.

Window Smasher Goes to Jail

A young Lake Villa man, 20-year-old Richard Craig Walters of 614 Piper Lane, was taken to the county jail shortly after midnight Sunday when police charged him with breaking windows at Dodge of Antioch on Main St.

He was charged with criminal damage of property. The owner of the firm said the damage exceeded $1,000.

Walters was charged with breaking windshields on three automobiles and a large window on the southside of the building. An automobile inside the showroom also was damaged.

Police said Walters apparently also was the person who the same night broke a 20-inch by 30 inch window in the front of the Antioch News building, just north of Dodge of Antioch.

IN ANOTHER incident, police are investigating a burglary Sunday at the home of Jack Ester, 661 Drom Ct.

Someone broke into the house apparently by prying open a lock with a screwdriver. Ester said that drawers were rifled and a piggy bank containing between $200 and $300 was missing. Also taken was a 9 mm automatic gun with a pearl handle, which Ester said had been in the family's possession for quite a few years.

People once believed that mistletoe powder could cure epilepsy.

If all the world learns to live together like one big happy family, who's going to wash the dishes?

GOP Precinct Posts Attract 5 Candidates

Two races for Republican Party precinct committeemen were shaping up Monday as the deadline arrived for filing for the Mar. 16 election.

Jim Olson had filed for re-election as committeeman in Antioch's precinct No. 2. Also filing were Jerry Murphy and Norma Lowe.

In precinct No. 1, where Bernard Osmond said he was not running for re-election, two persons had filed: Mike Haley and Hugo Holbek.

Party Planning

TIPS

Check out your house no later than the day before your party. Make sure you have enough coasters, cocktail napkins, ashtrays, cigarettes, matches, candles, bathroom tissue, fresh soap and guest towels.

If you're planning a catered affair, you can get help and guidance from the expert banquet managers and innkeepers at Holiday Inns on food, decorations, and entertainment. They may also make suggestions for a better type of party for your particular group and budget.

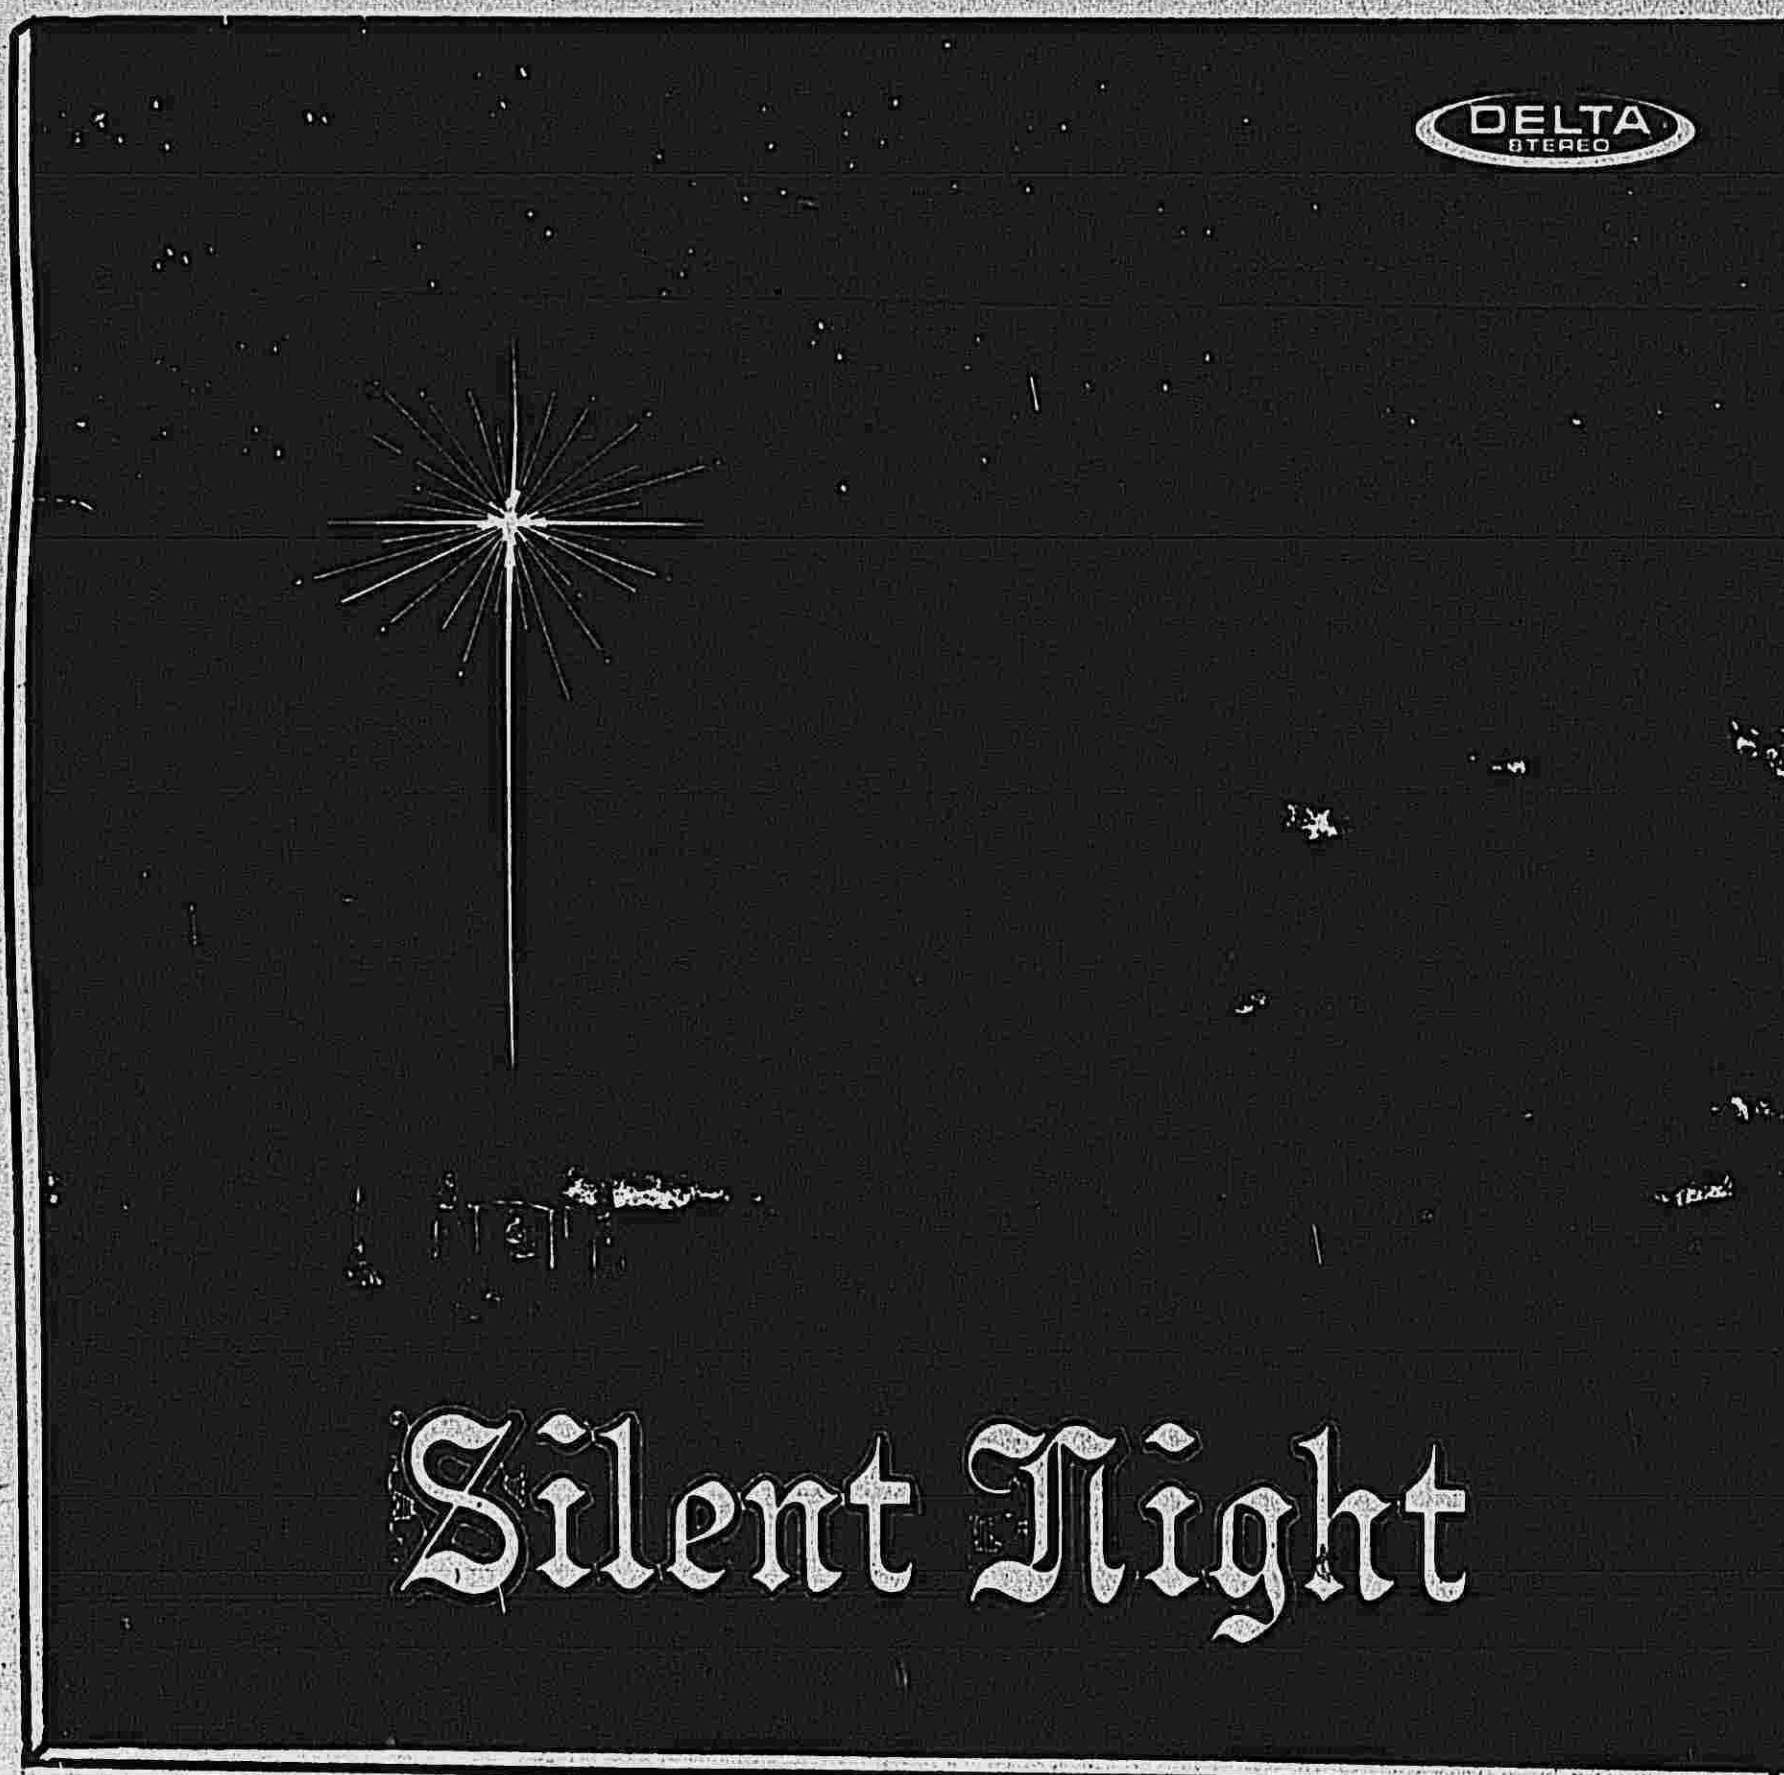

If your organization has decided on a cash bar for your big party, it's a good idea to make it a ticket bar. This saves the bartender time because he doesn't have to handle money. It also speeds the service and makes the accounting easier.

The No-Work (Almost) Orange

If you use your head, you can create a delightful dessert that can be made ahead, is chock full of vitamin C and is easy as A B C to create, as is this elegant orange arrangement.

ORANGE RUM CUP

8 seedless oranges
1/4 cup confectioners' sugar
1/2 cup light rum

Peel oranges, removing all the white underskin and cut them into 1/4 inch crosswise slices. Arrange in a glass serving bowl and sprinkle with confectioners' sugar. Add rum; chill thoroughly. Makes 8 servings.

This cool dessert should receive a really warm reception, whenever you arrange to serve it.

nounced the winners of the recent Candy Sale as Miss Kim and Terri Schington and invited the next 20 runners up to a pizza party Tuesday, Jan. 13.

Band directors Lawrence Wagner and Sharon Higus extended thanks to all those band parents who worked so hard in preparing for the concert.

Look-Alike Mates

Folklore statement that husbands and wives tend to look more and more alike as the years go by may be more truth than lore. A recent university study indicates that not only do married couples look alike, they tend to act alike, have the same temperament and physical problems. Researchers believe a major factor in this "togetherness" is that married couples eat virtually the same food throughout most of their lives. In fact, eating is probably the most common experience shared by members of a family.

THE YOUTH CHOIR OF St. Stephen's Lutheran Church performed at the First National Bank last Saturday, providing background music as Santa Claus and his elves greeted "little savers."

Deck The Halls With Popcorn

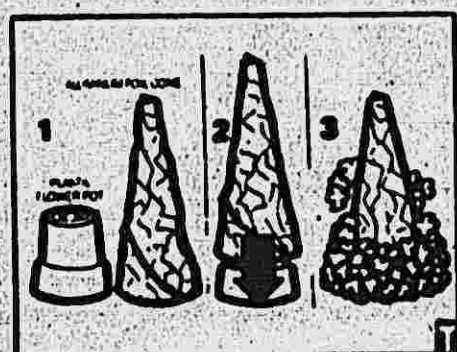

Pop some corn and decorate...make garlands for the tree and a special Christmas tree grove for mantle or table. No need to overspend, popcorn is an inexpensive treat. Everybody can join in...each child can have his own small tree for eating and decorating.

Popcorn Christmas Tree

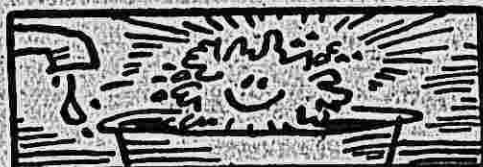

- 1 package Jiffy Pop Popcorn
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup corn syrup
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1/2 package ice cream sugar cones

Prepare popcorn according to package directions. Pour into large pot or kettle. Heat sugar, corn syrup and water in small saucepan to 250°-266°F. or until a drop of syrup in cold water forms a hard ball. Remove from heat and stir in butter.

Pour over popcorn and mix thoroughly with a wooden spoon. For a large tree, use small plastic flower pot as base. Roll heavy aluminum foil into cone; place and secure on bottom of flower pot to form tree shape. Use sugar cones for smaller tree forms. Shape popcorn mixture with buttered hands around form.

How to make the tree:
1. Roll foil into cone shape;
2. Slip cone completely over pot. Secure bottom;
3. Shape popcorn mixture around cone-decorate.

Slightly wilted parsley leaves can be freshened by trimming off the ends of the stems and placing them in cold water.

ONCE EACH MONTH, DRAIN WATER FROM YOUR HOT WATER TANK UNTIL IT RUNS CLEAR. THIS REDUCES MINERAL DEPOSITS AND HELPS RETAIN THE HEATING EFFICIENCY OF THE UNIT.

Santa Greets 'Little Savers' At the FNB

ALL THE TRIMMINGS were present Saturday when children visited Santa at the First National Bank of Antioch. On Santa's lap is Jewella Roth, 4. The elf at the left is Michelle Young and the one at the right is Laura Young. In the background, the youth choir of St. Stephen's church sings Christmas carols.

Santa and his elves were on hand Saturday morning to greet all the little savers at the First National Bank of Antioch.

Elves Laura and Michelle Young handed out games and rings while Santa chatted with the little ones. Santa opened 50c Christmas Club accounts for his friends with the first payment paid.

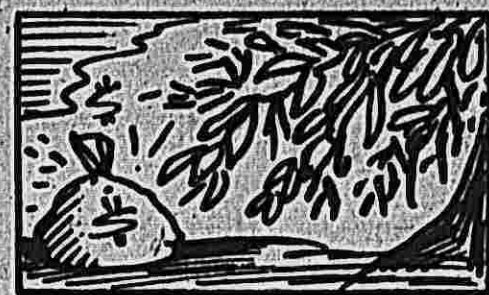

After a week of hard work, Santa will return Friday evening from 6 to 8 p.m. and Saturday morning from 9 a.m. to 12:00 noon in the bank lobby.

Christmas Club accounts may be opened in the child's name during those hours.

Santa thanks his other elves for their help this past weekend. They were Lisa and Lindsay Woods, Eric Van Patten, Kenny Litchfield, Tammy Eder and Brad Mandernack. Elves next weekend will include Tracy Donner and John Higgins.

The First National Bank thanked Mrs. Joyce Woods and the Genesis and Youth Choirs of St. Stephen Lutheran Church for their Christmas Carol performance in the bank lobby Saturday morning.

Friday evening, Dec. 19, the Salem Central Swing Choir will perform in the bank lobby from 6:30 to 7:30. The bank is extending an invitation to the community to hear the performance.

The yellow color of the withered mistletoe branch was thought to be endowed with the power to discover buried treasure.

Eyes Of Texans Were On Cotton In 1830's

The eyes of Texans were up on cotton even before they achieved independence from Mexico.

In fact, one historian reports that when Stephen F. Austin and his volunteers were awaiting reinforcements from San Antonio in 1835 the majority of colonists were gathering their cotton and paying no attention to politics.

Cotton had become the area's chief crop in less than a decade after Anglo-Americans first settled in Texas, reports the National Cotton Council. First cotton exported from there into the Mexican interior was carried across the Rio Grande by muleback. By 1831, Edwin Waller took a schoonerload of cotton from the mouth of the Brazos to Matamoros and two years later some 5,000 bales were being exported to New Orleans.

Austin reported to the Mexican government in 1833 that 30 cotton gins were operating in the towns of Austin and Brazorla, and that settlements at Liberty and Nacogdoches also were "very well provided with gins."

Texans were quick to brag about their cotton-growing capabilities. As early as 1836, one declared, "For a surety, our advantages for raising this article are superior to those of any part of the United States."

And three years later, Anson Jones—who was then the Texas minister to Washington—wrote to the British foreign minister that Texas "has at least 100 million acres of cotton land and is capable of producing enough of that great staple for the supply and consumption of the world."

England's interest in Texas cotton was said to be a factor in the United States' move toward annexation of what became the Lone Star State.

The Texas crop increased from 39,774 bales in 1848 to about 200,000 bales 10 years after annexation. And by 1949, the state's cotton production topped 6 million bales.

ACHS Choir Sells Christmas Album

The Antioch High School Concert Choir, under the direction of Ralph G. Brooke, was recently selected as one of 20 high schools in the midwest to produce a stereo album of familiar Christmas music on Delta Records.

The Message of Christmas album ($5 each) is now available from members of the choir, the State Bank of Antioch, First National Bank of Antioch, Antioch Drugs and Barnstables Department Store.

Mr. Brooke has been director of the high school choirs for the past 12 years and the distinct honor for the choir to be chosen to produce such an album is based on a long tradition of excellent choral music by the Concert Choir.

The 80-voice A Cappella Choir sings a variety of music ranging from the sacred to the popular style throughout the year.

The choir performs at Christmastime, in the spring, at Honors Night and at graduation.

A tour of the grade schools is taken in the spring to encourage incoming freshmen to join the choir.

The group takes various trips to universities, contests and churches. A camp at the end of the summer is attended to prepare music for the coming year. Antioch is a participant of the Northwest Suburban Conference Choral Festival held each February.

A select group of individuals chosen from A Capella Choir composes the Madrigal Choir. This group of 16 has taken a first at the state solo and ensemble contest for the past 11 years.

Madrigal selections are the usual contest numbers. Madrigal Choir not only sings madrigals, but sacred and popular numbers too.

ACHS Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education of Antioch Community High School, District 117, will be held on Thursday at 7:30 p.m., in the board room.

Grass Lake Students Give To Children

Usually the students charge a fee for those who attend dances at Grass Lake School. However, last Friday food was exchanged for admission to the dance.

The money collected at the dances goes toward a class outing, but at the suggestion of the eighth grade science teacher, Miss Pamela Friedrick, the students decided to do something for those less fortunate than themselves. The food was given to the Central Baptist Children's Home in Lake Villa.

The students and staff have worked hard to make it a success. Those who worked behind the scenes also deserve recognition. These were upper grade students who made things needed in the play during study hall time.

Considerable effort on the part of the staff was extended. Overseeing the rehearsals and student supervision was required which covered a multitude of activities.

Astro-
Analysis

By Sonia

ARIES [March 21 - April 19] — Use all your ingenuity to promote better working conditions and don't hesitate to approach superiors with plans for improvement. Your enthusiasm should rub off on others.

TAURUS [April 20 - May 20] — Try to express your opinion tactfully as close associates are not too receptive to new ideas now. Get in touch with old friends who may offer a new approach to things.

GEMINI [May 21 - June 21] — A determination to achieve too much too fast can defeat the purpose. Lay the groundwork first, then proceed. Avoid argumentative people.

CANCER [June 22 - July 21] — A week which offers many new possibilities; new relationships should be encouraged, especially romantic ones. Be ready for sudden unexpected developments.

LEO [July 22 - August 21] — Don't allow a temporary lull in your plans to cause impatience. Use the extra time to make personal improvements. Turn your attentions toward redecorating in the home.

VIRGO [August 22 - September 22] — It's easy to be critical of family members now but try to be tactful when expressing your own viewpoint. Work on establishing stronger family ties.

LIBRA [September 23 - October 22] — A good time for settling past differences or renewing old friendships. Communicative abilities are exceptional so speak out. There little possibility of being misunderstood now.

SCORPIO [October 23 - November 21] — Interests tend to be scattered in many directions; expect sudden changes which can affect personal plans. Give careful consideration to new offers.

SAGITTARIUS [November 22 - December 20] — As speculative opportunity is sure to present itself now, use common sense before risking your assets. Seek advice from competent people regarding investments.

CAPRICORN [December 21 - January 20] — Try to be sensible when thinking of the future; thoughts should be focused on long-range plans which offer security. Don't make commitments which may be broken.

AQUARIUS [January 21 - February 19] — Be wary of who you confide in as others have a tendency to misinterpret what you say. Keep actions strictly on the up and up. Charity work offers best rewards.

PISCES [February 20 - March 20] — It's easy to get carried away when Christmas shopping. Try to stay within your financial boundaries, however. Your generous nature may need curbing a bit.

Cheryl Reckers Weds Greg Collins

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Collins

Cheryl Reckers and Gregory Collins were united in marriage at the United Methodist Church of Antioch, Nov. 29th.

The altar candlebra were lit by the bride's brothers, Gary and Lawrence, before the vows were heard by Rev. Stephen Williams and Father Robert Melcher.

Soloist Wendy Jensen was accompanied on the organ by Paul Cramer.

THE NEW Mrs. Collins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Reckers of Antioch and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collins of Downers Grove.

Honor attendants were Mrs. Patricia Lulo of Tampa, Fla., and Mr. Steven Munro of Lynwood, Ill.

The groom's sister, Linda West, along with Mary Bender and Marcia Coulter as bridesmaids, joined the groom's brother-in-law Edwin West, the groom's cousin Jay Lynch and Kenneth Kasuboski as groomsmen.

The bride's three cousin's, Debra Delaney, Melissa Berelter, and Robert Delaney were junior bridesmaids and ring bearer.

The bride's white chiffon gown had long full sleeves with deep chantilly cuffs to match the beaded yoke. The skirt had a built-in chapel train and a ruffled flounce topped with lace trim and the empire waist was encircled with a soft crushed chiffon belt. The brides crescent bouquet of roses, stephanotis, and phalaenopsis orchids was designed and created by her mother.

THE RECEPTION was held at the Illinois Beach Lodge in Zion.

The newlyweds, who are delaying their honeymoon trip to Florida until after the Christmas holidays, are making their home in Antioch.

Cheryl graduated from North Central College in Naperville, and teaches French at Grant High School.

Gregory is a graduate of Illinois State University in Normal, and is an industrial arts teacher at Antioch High School.

A Safety Myth

True or false? One of the best ways to get extra control in winter driving is to put about two hundred pounds of weight in your car's trunk.

False, says the National Safety Council. Extra weight over the rear axle can provide a small amount of extra traction, but most cars' trunks are well behind the rear axle. So adding extra weight could actually reduce overall control by decreasing the load on the front wheels, thereby lessening steering control.

CHOCOLATE TOFFEE CRESCENT BARS

8-oz. can refrigerated crescent dinner rolls
2/3 cup firmly packed brown sugar
2/3 cup butter or margarine
1 to 1 1/2 cups nut halves or chopped nuts
6-oz. pkg. (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate pieces

Preheat oven to 375°. Separate crescent dough into two large rectangles. Place in ungreased 15 x 10-inch jelly roll pan. Gently press dough to cover bottom of pan; seal perforations. In small saucepan, combine brown sugar and butter; boil 1 minute. Pour evenly over dough. Sprinkle with nuts. Bake 14 to 18 minutes, until golden brown. Remove from oven; immediately sprinkle with chocolate pieces. Slightly swirl pieces as they melt, leaving some pieces partially melted or whole. (Do not spread evenly; leave a mottled appearance.) Cool; cut into 36 to 48 bars.

The Town Crier

DR. SPOCK is now suggesting dolls for boys. Heck, Joe Namath had that idea a long time ago.

LOU NOVA, 64, once a well-known boxer noticing the rash of man-woman sports challenges and the money made by Bobby Riggs and Billie Jean King, has announced: "I'll fight any woman in the world for $100,000."

AUTHOR AND playwright Thornton Wilder died last week in Connecticut at the age of 78. He was best known for his novel, "The Bridge of San Luis Rey," and the play "Our Town."

Like all great writers, Wilder left us some lines to live by.

For example, in "Our Town," a young lady named Emily dies at the age of 26, but gets the chance to come back for just one day.

She chooses her 12th birthday and spends it with her family ... all happy but not really paying enough attention to each other and the beautiful things the world has to offer.

She can't stand it, and says: "So all that was going on and we never noticed. Take me back - up the hill - to my grave. But first: Wait! One more look. Good-by, Good-by, world. Good-by Grover's Corners ... Mama and Papa. Good-by to clocks ticking ... and Mama's sunflowers. And food and coffee. And new-ironed dresses and hot baths ... and sleeping and waking up. Oh, earth, you're too wonderful for anybody to realize you. Do any human beings ever realize life while they live it? - every, every minute?"

Thornton Wilder died last week but he left us a message we can use this Christmas season and in all our future years:

To realize life while we live it every, every minute.

Varsity Wrestlers Flatten Grayslake

Antioch's varsity wrestlers caught up with Grayslake's Rams last Friday night and scored a 33-24 victory here.

Antioch scored points on pins by John Davis at 119 pounds, John Kakacek at 138 and Dave Bogaerts at 155.

Rich Gorski won a forfeit.

Scoring decisions for Antioch were Tom Dye, 98 pounds; Marvin Givson, 112, and Greg Nordstrom, 126.

Rich Coles and Dick Kessler were missing from the lineup because of injuries, but underclassmen helped out the varsity.

ON SATURDAY Coach Ted DeRousse's Sequoits traveled to Glenbrook North to compete in a four-team tournament. Antioch led most of the way but wound up third behind Glenbrook and Buffalo Grove.

Gordon Tech was fourth.

"The flu bug and injuries limited us to 17 entries out of a possible 24," DeRousse said. Losing these boys hurt, since the other teams' depth paid off in the finals.

Antioch had two champions: Gibson at 105 pounds and Nordstrom at 126.

Tim Vander Meer was second at 98 pounds and Dye third. Tom Ingoglia was third at 126, Kakacek second at 132 and Geoff Nordstrom second at 145.

THIS FRIDAY night Antioch travels to Warren to take on the dangerous Blue Devils in a conference dual meet. Next Monday and Tuesday the Sequoits compete in the prestigious Glenbrook South, 16-team tournament in Glenview. Sessions are at 1 and 7 p.m. on Monday and 1 and 6 p.m. on Tuesday.

Jayvee Matmen Busy

Antioch High's junior varsity wrestlers had a busy time last weekend, beating Grayslake's jayvees 36-11 on Friday and then placing third in the Buffalo Grove tournament on Saturday.

The Antioch jayvees' No. 2 team also scored a victory over Grayslake, 32-12.

Scoring pins for Antioch against Grayslake were Tim Vander Meer, Glen Learmont, Randy Larsen, Brian Dyer and Glen Bednar. Winning by decision were Keith Olsen, Rich Diaz, Rich Witton, Don Traska, Wayne Blake, Keith Kaht, Del Gorski, Rick Dauck and Rich Packert.

At Buffalo Grove, the future Sequoits spotted Gordon Tech and Glenbrook North a huge lead, then made a tremendous comeback to fall just short of winning. Final scores were Gordon Tech 65, Glenbrook 64, Antioch 56 and Buffalo Grove 34.

Five Antioch wrestlers won championships: Jeff Gross at 105 pounds, Randy Larsen at 112, Brian Dyer at 119, Gene Lehn at 145 and Rich Packert at 185.

Keith Olsen placed second at 105 and Del Gorski second at 138. Rick Dauck was third at 167.

Gary Wiczorek, Dan Sheedlo and Terry Simmons won consolation championships for Antioch.

The junior varsity wrestlers have a 2-0-1 record in the conference and will grapple with Warren, there, Friday at 6:45 p.m. Next Monday the sophomore members of the squad will wrestle in the Antioch Invitational tournament, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Other schools in the meet will be Aurora West, Buffalo Grove, Deerfield, Glenbrook North, Grant, Highland Park and Palatine.

Katharine Keulman Wins $15 in Contest

Some local basketball fans thought Grayslake was going to beat Antioch last Friday ... but most of them picked Antioch to win by anywhere from six to 20 points.

When the Sequoits won by only two, it meant $15 for Katharine Keulman in the Antioch News' weekly basketball contest.

Katharine had predicted Antioch would win by three points. She will receive her $15 within a few days from Pedersen Bros. Implement Co.

SECOND PRIZE, a $10 gift certificate from Stanley's Men's Fashions, goes to Calvin Knutson, who predicted Antioch would win by four points. That prize also will be in the mail this week.

There was a tie for third. Both John R. McAvoy and Donna Gutowski picked Antioch to win by five. We had to use the tie-breaker, Saturday night's game at McHenry, and John came closest in that one ... so he wins the $5 gift certificate from the Vault Restaurant. We'll be mailing it to him on Thursday.

AN ENTRY was received from as far away as Cedar Rapids, Ia. It came from Mike Perrone, the star of last year's Antioch team who is now playing basketball at Coe College.

Mike picked Antioch to beat Grayslake by 11 and he correctly picked McHenry to beat Antioch in the tie-breaker.

The fun resumes today as another basketball contest appears in this issue of the Antioch News. The "game of the week" is Friday night's battle here between Antioch and Warren. Either team could win. Both are 2-0 in the conference. Be sure to get your entry in, or postmarked, before 5 p.m. Friday.

Holiday Decor

Maybe Christmas is a good time to dispel the myth (no, not Santa Claus, Virginia) that lights are big energy users, that it is somehow unpatriotic to light up for Christmas.

Fact is that only about one per cent of the energy used in the U.S. is needed to light homes, and only a small fraction of this amount is used for home decorative holiday lighting.

Actually, a modest display of indoor and outdoor Christmas lights using about 500 watts for four hours daily adds only about six cents a day to the electric bill. (Cost is based on the national average of about 3 cents per kilowatt hour).

Gary Mason, General Electric Christmas lighting expert, suggests this "500" lighting package for the economy-minded:

INDOORS — Decorate a six-foot tree with three strings of 25 "cool" lights for a total of 75 lights. "Cool" type bulbs use fewer watts than standard bulbs and actually operate cool enough to touch. As a result, they can be used on plastic as well as live trees.

If your tree doesn't happen to be a six-footer, use this formula to determine how many lights to use: multiply the tree height in feet, times the maximum width, times three. Double this figure if you use midget bulbs.

OUTDOORS — Use three 50-light midget sets to outline a door or window or to spruce up a tree. Midgets are particularly attractive in the bare branches of trees which have lost their leaves.

For a more traditional approach, light an evergreen tree or shrub.

Armed with three 50-light midget sets, a home-owner can choose between creating several displays or concentrating all 150 lights on one "spectacular."

At six cents a day for two weeks, these indoor and outdoor Christmas lighting displays (three Cool Bright 25 light sets and three 50-light Merry Midgets) would add only 85 cents to the electric bill. For three weeks, $1.27, and about $1.80 for a full month, according to Mason.

For the all-thumpers and those who prefer to let others do-it-themselves, there are lighted decorations for doors, walls or windows. GE has wreaths, large tinsel bells, even an 18-inch tree. ... all wired, ready to hang and light up.

To keep energy costs down this Christmas energy-wise consumers will use efficient, lower-watt midget or "cool" bulbs, Mason said. Midgets are now available, he said, in straightline sets that are easy to install, unlike early midget sets which were looped and awkward to decorate with.

Midget light sets use only 18 watts, regardless of the number of lights they contain. ... 20, 35 or 50. And five 50-light sets of midgets — that's 250 lights — use less electricity than a single 100-watt bulb.

Antioch, Warren in Showdown Friday

Antioch's Sequoits take on Warren's Blue Devils at 8 o'clock here Friday night and the basketball game should give a clearer picture of what's happening in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

At this early stage of the season, Antioch is tied for first with Warren and Stevenson. Each of the three teams has a 2-0 record.

Antioch came from behind to beat Grant 53-46 in its opener and then beat Grayslake by two points last week when Bob Dubek swished a pair of free throws in the final second.

WARREN, ALONG with Antioch, was one of the pre-season favorites. The Blue Devils have beaten Lake Zurich 65-46 and another favorite, Woodstock, 57-44.

Led by Keith Sorroz and Nick Haydock, Warren is threatening Antioch's two-year hold on the conference title.

Friday night's game is the only assignment of the weekend for Coach Roger Andrews'

Antioch team. After that they get ready for the tough 16-team Rockford Invitational tournament, Dec. 26 through Dec. 30.

BUT FIRST comes Warren. The Blue Devils showed a balanced attack last week as they outshot and outrebounded Woodstock. Surroz scored 14 points and Haydock 13. Surroz is 6-foot-3 and Haydock is 6-2.

EVEN THOUGH Antioch lost 74-57 to McHenry last Saturday, Coach Andrews saw bright spots.

After the first quarter McHenry led 14-4. Antioch was able to hit on only one of its 10 field goal attempts.

"We had some good shots," said Andrews, "but they just didn't go in."

Then Antioch outscored the tough McHenry team 24-16 in the second quarter.

"It was probably our best quarter of basketball this year," said Andrews. "Our team really played well, rebounded well and was patient on offense, as it should be."

It wasn't too bad until the last 10 minutes. Antioch trailed by only 39-36, but then McHenry ran 10 straight points and enjoyed a 49-36 lead. That was it ... In the last quarter McHenry continued to outscore Antioch, 23-17.

BOB DUBEK, who saved

"MOST VALUABLE PLAYER" -- That title was bestowed on Bob Dubek (right) as he led Antioch's Sequoits to victory over Grant in the first home basketball game of the season. Presenting the trophy on behalf of Four Squires clothing store is Kevin Walpole (left), an Antioch star of a year ago. Four Squires will present another trophy to an Antioch player following this Friday's home game against Warren.

Friday night's victory over Grayslake with two free throws, had another good weekend from the foul line, hitting on six of seven.

Scott Kimball made 13 of his 28 shots from the field in the two weekend games.

Against McHenry, Mitch Witt made seven of eight free throws and, in both weekend games, shared the rebounding chores with Kimball and George Ferguson as each of the three pulled down between 10 and 12.

Antioch Frosh Cagers Getting Better: Coach

Antioch's freshman basketball players split their two games last week. On Monday, they dropped an exciting 35 to 32 decision at Zion and Saturday they crushed Grayslake 50 to 22. The latter game evened the team's conference record at 1-1.

At Zion, the young Sequoits led most of the way but couldn't quite handle the Zion press in the last quarter. Mike Lischewski led all scorers with 19 points. In the "B" game, Roger Korjenek tallied 10 points and Scott Gallagher 9 but the "B"s lost a thriller 57-49. It was the "B" team's first loss.

At Grayslake, Antioch was in charge all the way and raced to a 28-8 halftime lead. At the end of three periods the lead had bloomed to 44 to 15 and the reserves played out the game. Lischewski again led scorers with 15 points. Chris Oddson added 10 points and led with 11 rebounds. Antioch outboarded the Rams 39 to 21. In the "B" game Gallagher dropped in 18 points as Grayslake was overwhelmed 66 to 14.

Coach Norm Hahn expressed satisfaction with the performance of both teams. He especially credited the teams with good rebounding, shooting, and few turnovers.

"We get better and better every game," he said.

The next freshman game is Saturday at home, 9 a.m., against Warren.

Sequoits Stay Unbeaten in League

By MIKE WITT

The Antioch Sequoits were sky-high after Friday night, and every Sequoit fan should have been as well, as they pulled out a 51-49 thrilling victory at Grayslake to raise their conference record to a perfect 2-0.

But Saturday night was a definite downer as they were trounced by a tough, McHenry basketball 74-57.

With 14 seconds remaining at Grayslake, the game was tied and the Sequoits had the ball. But they played around a little too long and Bob Dubek threw up a desperation shot at the buzzer and was fouled. With two shots and a tie game, he knew that 50 percent here would win the game. Grayslake called time out to make him think

Antioch's Sophs Rout Grayslake

In conference play over the weekend Antioch's sophomore basketball team defeated Grayslake 65 to 35. In a nonconference game at McHenry on Saturday the sophs were defeated 55 to 49.

The sophs are now 3 and 3 for the season and 2 and 0 in conference play.

Antioch led 18 to 6 at the end of the first quarter in the Grayslake game and coasted to an easy victory. Fourteen players saw action in the game with 11 contributing to the score. Tim Huebner led Antioch with 17 points, followed by Tom Huebner with 15 points.

McHenry used a full court zone press the following night to take an early lead in the game. Antioch, trailing 31 to 20 at halftime, played a strong second half but could never break into the lead.

Brian Andrews and Tom Huebner led the scoring with 12 points followed by Tim Huebner with 11 and Al Roth with 8.

Antioch's sophs will be at home against Warren this Friday at 6:45 p.m.

Fighting Colds

When you're aspirin-sensitive and you catch a cold, you've got enough miseries without adding an upset stomach or other unwanted side effects that can occur from pain relievers that contain aspirin.

If you catch cold but shouldn't take aspirin, your doctor may recommend Co-Tylenol cold formula tablets. They contain an effective non-aspirin pain reliever, plus an antihistamine and a decongestant, to provide relief of colds' distress without aspirin's side effects.

Since youngsters sometimes suffer toxic reactions to aspirin under certain conditions, it's generally safer to give them this non-aspirin cold formula too.

BUT LOSE AT McHENRY

about the situation, but Bob was probably thinking about what he was going to do after the game because he calmly swished both shots to wrap up one, exciting win.

ANTIOCH HELD a 16-11 first quarter lead, but Grayslake stormed back to trail at the half 27-25. At this point Coach Roger Andrews and his players must have known they were in for a ballgame.

Scott Kimball was a big factor in the first half as he was getting open and putting the ball in the hoop, getting 15 points in the first half.

Behind a roaring, homecourt crowd, Grayslake surged into a 40-37 third quarter advantage. They held a 48-42 lead with 2½ minutes left when they lost their 6'8 junior center Ed Brady on fouls. Even though he had scored only two points, he had been a big factor on rebounding and defense.

THE SEQUOITS seemed to get their heads together at this point and tied the game to set-up Dubek's heroics. The Sequoits were pumped up in this span by the play of Don Norwick and Bruce Kecskemety, who both were seeing first time action this year.

Kecskemety made his presence known under the boards and put in two big baskets. Antioch put a shot up near the end of the game, while down by four points. It missed and looked like a sure Rams rebound, which could have iced the game for Grayslake. But Norwick somehow came up with the rebound and put it back in the hoop to get Antioch within two.

Grayslake outshot the Sequoits and outrebounded them 37-29, but it was Antioch's hustle and never-die spirit, and the clutch performance of the bench that pulled this one out.

Kimball scored 21 points and Dubek had 10, while five other players also made a contribution in the scoring department.

SATURDAY NIGHT at McHenry was a different story. Besides an impressive second quarter comeback led by George Ferguson's 10 points, and some signs of good rebounding and defense in the third quarter, it was all McHenry.

The taller Warriors were tough on the boards and had balanced scoring with four players in double figures. The Sequoits were led by Ferguson's 18 points and Mitch Witt's 11.

The two games last weekend showed that Antioch has some players on the bench who can play ball. When they got in, they sparked the team and gave the regulars a breather. Hopefully, we'll see more of this in the future.

Telemetry System Links Paramedics With Hospital

The Antioch Rescue Squad's radio telemetry system for its mobile intensive care unit is fully operational now.

Installation of two receiver sites have been completed in the village. The equipment was purchased for the rescue squad's service area by Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan.

With the telemetry system, the rescue squad paramedics are able to transmit a patient's vital signs to the hospital, where they are monitored by physicians who are in radio contact.

The Antioch Rescue Squad has 16 trained paramedics and is the first rescue squad to begin emergency cardiac care in northern Illinois.

Barbara Lyons, emergency medical services coordinator at Victory Memorial, said:

"The paramedic at the scene is the doctors' eyes and hands, and functions on the doctor's orders until the patient arrives at the hospital. The program began several years ago with the training of firemen interested in mobile intensive care, primarily heart attack victims."

Watson of the hospital; Brad Ipsen, Bruce Jablonski, Mayor Robert Wilton, Barbara Lyons of the hospital, and Rod White.

Improvising:

Ben Franklin Did It...So Can You

When Ben Franklin needed something, he often simply invented it: his bifocals, his bathtub, his stove. "Franklin stoves" are still popular in homes today.

Franklin's famous electrical experiment was an improvisation, too. With a metal wire attached to the top of a silk handkerchief kite — and a key tied to the bottom of the kite string — he ventured out into a storm. As electrical charges in the air travelled down the wet string, the key danced just as metal had reacted in his experiments with static electricity. Franklin proved his point — though at some personal risk: lightning and electricity were one and the same.

Improvisation also pulls performers through many a mishap on stage. Viennese tenor Leo Slezak, stranded in center stage when overzealous stagehands removed the swan which was to whisk him off mysteriously in the third act of Lohengrin, made operatic history with his improvised riposte: "When does the next swan leave?"

This is "winging it", in the vernacular — what improvisation is all about. Whenever old material is put to new uses, that's improvising.

Schools often employ such simple tools as newspapers, tape and ice cream sticks to bring out a child's imaginative skills.

One of the greatest boons to improvisers was the development of pressure sensitive tape. The 3M Company, which invented the first of its "Scotch" brand tapes 50 years ago.

Gift Ideas

TWO FOR TEE

This holiday season you can give presents that will be cherished all year round, if you follow these helpful suggestions. Stress quality. You'll give more for your money if you select the best.

Let the gift fit the person who gets it. To suit your favorite golfer to a tee, for instance, try new low trajectory golf balls. They're called Royal Plus 6 LT and are made by Uniroyal. Available through golf pro shops, they come regally wrapped in special Noel paper.

If you really want to please your favorite golfer, gift him with a good set of clubs as well, such as those with the popular shaft-in-hose. feature found in Royal Golf irons. Investing in quality equipment to help a golfer play a better game is a good way to make your thoughtful Christmas gift last for years.
